

Introduction and The Gospel Defined: God's Self Revelation in Jesus Christ	Romans 1:1 - 17
The Gospel as God's Judgement Human Envy, Desire, and Crucifixions The Fulfillment of Our Heart's Desires The Law and Moral Guidance as Futile The Outworking of God's Grace in History	Romans 1:18 - 3:20 1:18 - End of 1 2:1 - 11 2:12 - End of 2 3:1 - 21
The Gospel as God's Grace and Our Faith The Universal Gift of Faith Abraham's Example and Ripples Outside of Christ's Revelation	Romans 3:21 - End of 4 3:22 - End of 3 4
The Gospel as God's Assurance and Our Hope Our Imputed Righteousness and Its Peace The New Life Putting Sin to Death and Living Sacrifices The Life of the Spirit V The Law We Will Die - How Then Should We Live? The Coming Kingdom and its Effects on Us Now	Romans 5 - 8 5:1 - 11 5:12 - 21 6 7 8:1 - 17 8:18 - 9
The Gospel as God's Plan and Us as God's People How Free is Free Will? Who are God's Chosen People? How Does God Intend to Share His Good News? How Does a Jewish God Reach Out for the Gentiles?	Romans 9 - 11 9:1 - 29 9:30 - 10:13 10:15 - End of 10 11
The Gospel as God's Beloved Community and Our Love How we Right the Wrongs of the World Christians and the Government (Reading alongside Revelation 13) God's beloved Community Our Lord is A Servant, Our King is Homeless	Romans 12 - 15:13 12 13 14 15:1 - 13
Conclusion Paul, His Plans, and His Friends Final Instructions	Romans 15:14 - End 15:14 - 16:16 16:17 - End