Walking in the Footsteps of Jesus

In Matthew chapter 4, we find Jesus beginning His public ministry after John the Baptist had been arrested. The scene is set in the region of Galilee, specifically in the town of Capernaum. Jesus had just returned from the wilderness after being tempted by the devil for forty days and nights. As He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. Jesus called out to them, saying, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Simon and Andrew immediately left their nets and followed Jesus. As they continued walking, they came across two other brothers, James and John, who were also fishermen with their father Zebedee. Jesus called out to them as well, and they too left their boat and father to follow Him. The surroundings were likely bustling with activity as people went about their daily lives, but in the midst of it all, these four men were called by Jesus to become His disciples and join Him in spreading the good news of the kingdom of heaven.
